

Foodie Agenda: Brunch at Bluestem Brasserie, CHAYA's Raw Bar, and More

By Sarah Medina on April 03, 2014 9:00 AM

Photo courtesy of Bluestem Brasserie.

Friday, April 25 - Sunday, April 27

The Vineyard to Vintner experience in Napa Valley's Stags Leap District is one foodies look forward to every year. This exclusive 3-day weekend offers intimate opportunities to taste the appellation's world-class Cabernets while mingling with the winery owners and vintners. Events include dinners, open houses (many at wineries that are not open to the public), and intriguing panel discussion and tasting on what has made this region so distinctive over the past 25 years. A grand finale vintner-hosted brunch on Sunday, featuring a sneak preview of the upcoming Appellation Collection to be released Fall 2014. Visitors are able to choose their experiences, Friday through Sunday, and visit any of the 19 Stags Leap District Winegrower member wineries on Saturday. Get your tickets before they sell out!

Vineyard to Vintner: $175 for a single day pass, up to $725 for 3 days, $2995 for the Signature Weekend for Two. Napa.

under Eat + Drink, Foodie Agenda